

PEARY MATTER IS DECIDED AT LAST

NAVAL COMMITTEE WILL RECOMMEND NO HONORS.
EXPRESS SERIOUS DOUBTS

Suggested He Did Not Reach the Pole at All—Give Other Polar Records.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, D. C., March 9.—Every indication points to a postponement of any congressional action to reward Commander Peary for his conquest of the North Pole until after his proofs shall have been published. The subcommittee of the house naval committee considering the matter announced it is inclined to recommend that no action be taken at present.

Was Unanimous
As predicted by practically a unanimous vote the subcommittee decided at noon against bestowing any reward upon Peary until he furnished further proofs that he discovered the pole.

Raises Doubt
"I confess that I am exceedingly skeptical about Peary's story," declared the chairman of the subcommittee, a member of the committee, today, "and I'm going to protest against any honor being conferred upon him by congress until he has established beyond a reasonable doubt he did discover it in the open and not in the dark. He did not propose to confer high honor upon anyone in the dark."

His Marches
Mr. Macdonald directed attention to the "discrepancy" in Peary's story. This was the speed with which the explorer declared he had traveled from the time Peary left for the pole. Peary said for five days he had made 26.1 miles per day, but Macdonald said this appeared very singular in view of the fact the Peary party had made but 9.06 miles per day up to the time Peary left.

Is Doubtful
"An astounding part of Peary's statement," said Macdonald, "is the number of miles he traveled every day after Peary left him and when a white man was with him as a witness, his only companions being his negro valet and four Eskimos."

Quoted Authorities
Macdonald then quoted Lieut. Shackleton, General Greeley and others to show that "19 to 12 miles a day or slightly more perhaps is considered the limit of human endurance, traveling over polar seas."

A Commission
An interstate commerce commission was the substitute for the proposed administration of the proposed administration of the interstate commerce bill by the house committee on interstate commerce today.

Many Nominations
President Taft today sent to the senate the following nominations for new customs court of appeals:
Chief Justice Robert Montgomery of the supreme court of Michigan to be presiding judge.

SUTTON CASE IS TO BE RE-OPENED

Joint Resolution For A Re-Investigation Of Tragedy Introduced In Both Houses At Washington.

Washington, D. C., March 9.—The "Sutton case," which has already been the subject of two inquiries, is to be brought before public attention again and from all indications it is destined to be as profitable an official investigation as the Brownsville affair. Today a joint resolution was introduced in both houses of congress asking for a thorough re-investigation into the death of Lieutenant James S. Sutton and of all the events leading up to the tragedy. Simultaneously, it is understood, the mother of Lieutenant Sutton will institute proceedings in all the civil courts of Maryland.

Lieutenant Sutton died at Annapolis as a result of a wound in the head caused by a pistol shot on October 12, 1907. At the time of his death the lieutenant was a student at the marine school of application. According to the testimony given at the first investigation Sutton quarreled with a brother officer as they accompanied by several other officers, were returning in an automobile from a dance at Annapolis to the barracks. There was a fight after the party left the automobile in which Sutton is said to have been vanquished. The testimony tended to show that he went to his quarters and obtained a revolver with the intention of shooting his antagonist. He fired one shot at Lieutenant Robert E. Adams of the Marine Corps, but did not strike him. Lieutenant Adams, P. Rockefeller, another Marine Corps officer, who was a member of the party, attempted to intervene and struggled with Sutton in an attempt to disarm him. A second shot from Sutton's pistol pierced Rockefeller's clothes, but did not penetrate his body. According to the testimony Sutton, who had been thrown to the ground in his encounter with Rockefeller, then shot himself in the head.

A board of officers appointed to investigate Sutton's death rendered a verdict that he had committed suicide and that no person was in any way responsible for his death. About a year ago, as a result of an agitation on the part of the family and friends of the dead lieutenant, the matter was reopened and another board appointed to inquire into the circumstances of the tragedy. It was rumored at the time that sensational disclosures would be made and that the arrest of one or more Marine Corps officers on the charge of being concerned in the death of Lieutenant Sutton might follow. Numerous witnesses were summoned, but after a thorough investigation the board arrived at the same verdict as its predecessor, namely, that Sutton had come to his death by his own hand. The mother still maintains, however, that her son did not die by his own hand, but that his death was the result of a conspiracy.

The United States will probably keep its hands off until both sides unite in the request.

ILLINOIS SWEDISH REPUBLICANS MEET

At Galesburg on Anniversary of Monitor's Victory and Honor Memory of Senator John Ericsson.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Galesburg, Ill., March 9.—The members of the Swedish-American Republican League of Illinois gathered in annual convention here today on the anniversary of the battle between the Monitor and the Merrimack, which brought overwhelming fame to their countryman, John Ericsson. The program prepared for the meeting and the banquet to follow indicated that the Swedish-Americans intended to devote considerable time to the discussion of politics as well as to the commemoration of the battle. Some of the speakers of local prominence were C. C. Johnson, of Adams, and A. J. Johnson, of Adams, who were invited to speak at the banquet and to elaborate the principles of the "monitor" movement. Another invited speaker is Governor Deneen of Illinois, who is suspected of secretly giving aid and comfort to whatever there is of an insurgent movement in this state. The selection of Senator C. C. Johnson and Governor Deneen as the chief speakers has attracted considerable attention and caused no little concern among Illinois politicians and heretofore has always taken a most conservative stand.

SUSPECT OWEN IS AFTER POLITICAL "GOAT" OF SENATOR

Boom of Milwaukee Postmaster For First Place Under Hitchcock Thought To Be Move To Oust La Follette.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Milwaukee, Wis., March 9.—David C. Owen, postmaster of this city, is in Washington to boom himself for the position of First Postmaster General, to succeed Dr. Charles P. Grandford, who has been appointed postmaster for Washington.

This is hardly enough, but behind Owen's little boom is a pretty scheme to pry one Robert Marion La Follette out of the senior Senatorship of Wisconsin. Owen is said to have branched the plan to Postmaster General Hitchcock and to have found favor for it there. It also is reported to have been put up to President Taft, but nothing is known as to its reception at the White House.

Owen Would Like Job.
It will be remembered that it was from his post as First Assistant Postmaster General under Roosevelt that Frank H. Hitchcock fired up the steam roller that ended by nominating William Howard Taft for the Presidency. Now Mr. Owen would like to fall heir to such an important place and he thinks that the Wisconsin Senatorship is a good thing to practice on.

La Follette has been "in bad" with the Taft administration ever since he started talking holes in the tariff bill last summer. As a result he has a lot of patronage being up awaiting action by the President. Apparently he is off the reservation for good, and Owen is supposed to have figured that this patronage could be put to splendid use in the election of a successor to Mr. La Follette next winter, who would be friendly to the Taft administration. Owen's own place would be the most important place of this summer, which, if properly apportioned, might make a good feed machine in Wisconsin, where the full breeds and the sturdy have shot the Republican party full of holes.

Content With Reappointment.
Owen does not mind this plan, and his attendant possibilities being such, he will be content to capture a reappointment to his present place as postmaster at Milwaukee. His term expires within a month, and in the present deadlock of Wisconsin patronage he might fail to land it.

Owen has had a most interesting career. In the 1894 campaign he was a supernumerary in the Republican camp, officiating as an assistant sergeant-at-arms of the Republican national committee. When the campaign of Roosevelt-Harry S. New, President of the United States, was over, the recommendation of Roosevelt gave Owen the postmaster ship at Milwaukee, over the heads of the local Senators and Congressmen. In 1908 Owen camped "high on the steps of the Hitchcock throne, and now would go still higher.

BELOIT WATER CASE FIGHT IS RENEWED

Utility Company Refuses to Lay Main As Ordered by Council and Legal Battle Is Expected.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Beloit, Wis., March 9.—The latest attack by the Common Council on the Water Works company is to order the water and fire hydrants were to be placed and the hydrants were to be placed at that distance apart. When the company threw up their franchise to act under the directions of the State Commission, according to the ruling of the City Attorney Adams that rate per hydrant is done away with and the council now orders mains laid regardless of the hydrants. The company want to know if the commission will be and will not make the extension until the rate commission demands it. The measure promises to be another long draw out chapter in the water works contest before the state water rate commission.

DAILY NEWS HAS SOLVED PROBLEM

MILWAUKEE NEWSPAPER FIGURES OUT WHAT OPPOSITION TO LA FOLLETTE IS BASED ON.

HAS AN INTERESTING IDEA

Sets Forth Its Ideas in Startling Manner to Boost Up Its Claims of Plans and Ideas of Opposition.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Milwaukee, Wis., March 9.—According to the Milwaukee Daily News, the question of how the opposition to Senator La Follette is going to accomplish its ends and bring about the defeat either at the polls or by the legislature is all settled. The Daily News believes from talks with people who have returned from the recent political conferences in Washington there can be no question that considerable hopes are entertained by the opponents of Senator La Follette there that the decision of the supreme court, in the suit which has been brought to test the primary election law, will at least declare that portion of the law is unconstitutional which demands that candidates for the United States senate, although to be elected by the legislature, obtain an endorsement from the people in a primary election. In discussing this portion of the law the opponents have claimed that while it has never been contended that this primary election endorsement was binding on the legislature, the real intent of the law is to take away from the legislature its constitutional right of election and place it with the people and that the law is therefore unconstitutional.

Then they figure out that there can be no question either that the anti-La Follette politicians do not desire to face the issue in a fight on La Follette but instead that they far prefer the battle shall be before the legislature. No matter what the decision of the supreme court may be in the primary election case there can be no question that the opponents intend that the final fight over the United States senatorship shall be before the legislature, and as has been said before, the anti-La Follette managers have even gone so far as to plainly indicate that if it came to a close would prefer to aid in the election of a Democrat, rather than their standpoint would be "right" than to permit Senator La Follette, although Republican to retain his seat in the United States senate through the aid of their votes.

To go further into detail of the so-called plan they say that it can be certain that should the decision of the Wisconsin supreme court be against the primary election law that the plans of the opposition to Senator La Follette for its campaign are already made. It is the idea to bring out a large number of candidates before the legislature for United States senator and then have each candidate arrive to get as many legislative candidates as possible nominated and elected who are favorable to him, the idea being that in this way a safe majority of the Republican members of the legislature can be secured against Senator La Follette and that finally in the Republican legislative caucus these members be combined on some anti-La Follette Republican to bring about the defeat of the senator and the election of some anti-La Follette man in his place.

It is even figured out to the ninety who the candidates are to be and claim those who will be brought out before the legislature have been discussed and that the anti-La Follette people have in mind at least four men who are willing to participate in a legislative fight against Senator Robert M. La Follette.

Who the men are who would be willing to make the battle before the legislature but will not come into a primary election contest the men who are now discussing the anti-La Follette campaign refuse to say. They think, however, that in case of a legislative campaign local pride will cut a great deal of figure in the contest and that each candidate will rally around him some members from his own section of the state who will support him because they desire the United States senator shall come from the part of the state in which the members live.

If, however, the supreme court upholds the primary election law as constitutional there will be only a single candidate brought out by the opponents of Senator La Follette to fight a duel with him for the senatorial endorsement.

The absurdity of the whole story comes when they state that although the men who are planning the anti-La Follette campaign will not yet say who the have in mind as the candidates whom they will support before the primary election against Senator La Follette from their intimations in regard to the matter there can be no doubt that they intend to give their allegiance to Samuel A. Cook if he decides to be a candidate before the primary against the senator. What is more, these men who are now looking after the anti-La Follette campaign seem to take it as pretty definitely settled that Mr. Cook will be a candidate before the primary election against the senator in case the primary election law is held to be constitutional.

Reports from other parts of the show clearly that instead of Cook the leaders are stirring with Davidson and want him to come out for the place and make the campaign against his old friend. Then from another section of the state comes word that Judge Bancroft is being urged to announce himself as a candidate and from still another comes the report that a dark horse, in the shape of Howard is to be tried out.

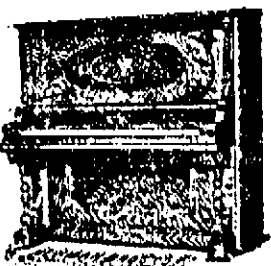

Until the decision of the supreme court on the primary measure it is safe to say that nothing definite will be done by any of the candidates of the campaign, managers. This decision will be out in a few days and then it is expected that something will drop. It is even hinted Connors would not be adverse to running himself if the opportunity came.

WERE ALL UNDER SCIENTIFIC SCRUTINY.

AS TWILIGHT CLUB TOPICS

Tobacco and Sugar Beets. Soil Exhaustion, the Various Breeds of Cattle, and Fruit-Growing Were Ably Discussed.

Following a tempting repast served in three courses, over a hundred members of the Twilight club last evening enjoyed an interesting discussion of "Scientific Agriculture" under the leadership of Prof. H. C. Buell. Tobacco, sugar beets, dairying, and fruit-growing, with particular reference to the conservation of soil-fertility, were the principal topics. As the meeting was the next to the last one for the season, committees were named for the ensuing year. S. M. Smith, Fred Clemens, M. G. Mount, C. V. Kereh, and E. J. Hammerman will have charge of the arrangements for next year and Dr. C. G. Dwight, A. C. Campbell, and Dr. E. E. Loomis will award the school prizes.

Soil Fertility

According to Leader Buell's information, the distinction between a farmer and an agriculturist rests in the fact that the farmer makes his money on the farm and spends it in the city, while the agriculturist makes his money in the city and spends it on the farm. Inasmuch as the integrity of the whole economic fabric depends upon the farm, any conditions which might lessen or increase the producing properties of the soil were worthy of careful consideration and the remarks of Prof. D. D. Mayne, founder of the Twilight club, that if Wisconsin was not careful it might undergo a decline like that of Virginia where land once worth $150 an acre had depreciated to $10, was not to be ignored.

Alvin Austin, a practical farmer, was the first speaker. While admitting that farm buildings were not always sure and certain indicators of the degree of fertility of the soil in a given locality, he found it to be true, as a general proposition, that where there were large tobacco sheds, the barns and other buildings were smaller and poorer. The ability of the soil to produce good crops depended upon (1) the plant food contained; (2) the texture; and (3) the humus. Tobacco crops were a heavy drain on the potash, phosphorus, nitrogen, and lime. The first effect on the texture of the soil was salutary but as the roots of previous years decayed and disappeared, the land became more and more subject to washes and was carried away by erosion to help build up level estate on the Gulf of Mexico. Livestock husbandry was generally neglected by the back-grower and so the principal source to be drawn on to offset the decrease in fertility was lost. The sugar beet was an even heavier drain on the elements. It took more potash than the tobacco; it produced more starch than tobacco; played havoc with the texture of the soil; and generally if rotation of the land was neglected to any extent, it was with tobacco which was also hard on the land. The exhaustion of the farmer and his family in caring for the crop should not be overlooked. Tobacco country had no great herds of fine cattle and after 50 years about all it had to show for its stewardship were poorer buildings, larger sheds, the tenant system, depletion of the soil, and mortgages on the farms.

Defense of Tobacco

Sanford Soverhill, in a defense of tobacco, outlined himself to figures taken from his father's diaries and his own observations. Since 1860 a unit of 100 acres, sometimes 18 and more often 11, and 10 acres had been devoted to leaf culture. From 1860 to 1905 they produced 173,303 pounds worth $13,112.73. Eleven acres of the same ground which had been growing tobacco for 50 years in 1906 yielded 17,445 pounds which brought $2,767.15 in the market, or $250.61 per acre. He knew of no land in a higher state of cultivation. Forty acres had been sold last year at $150 per acre. It was true that there had always been a careful rotation of crops and livestock had not been neglected. Wisconsin, which is now first among the eastern producing states should devote its energies towards securing better quality. The crops brought by the growers in approximately five counties from four to five million dollars annually. Meat of the records in best-growing, he said, had been made on old tobacco land.

Sugar Beet Benefits

W. W. Wood, head agriculturist of the Rock County Sugar Co., also had figures to establish his contention that the growing of beets improved the condition of the land for other crops. He showed that in Germany where sugar beets were extensively grown, the per acre yield of wheat, barley, other grains and potatoes greatly exceeded that of United States. He cited the experiments of James Walsh of Holst on whose farm 3,923 bushels of oats were yielded by 37 acres which had been devoted to beet culture while land in the same tract where no beets had been grown produced but 36 bushels to the acre. 13.88 acres there had last year yielded 221.6 tons of beets which brought $1,329.44 in the market. The straight root of the beet penetrating to an unusual depth in the soil—sometimes eight inches below the bottom of the furrow and 16 inches below the surface of the ground—was only the center of a fibrous network which extended in all directions. Fields where this root system had been established produced better filled straw and grains than any other. The big problem of fertility conservation was to save some of the estimated one-third which went to pollute the streams, and the speaker allowed his hearers to infer that the beet, good feeder though it may be, pays its board bill in what it leaves behind in converted rain and sunshine. Sugar was not in luxury but a necessity and if, instead of importing vast quantities of this commodity and exporting millions of bushels of wheat, the United States grew all the sugar required to supply its own needs, the profit

VERDICT FOR TOPP IN SLANDER ACTION

Jurors Deliberated Only a Half Hour This Morning—Excused Until Monday—Loop Condemnation Case.

In the circuit court room this morning arguments relating to the $1,000 damage case of William Lenz vs. Charles Topp were concluded by the attorneys and the jury, after deliberations lasting a half hour, brought in a verdict for the defendant. The defendant was charged by the plaintiff with having made defamatory assertions regarding Lenz and the defendant's wife.

Settled Out of Court.

A panel of jurors were drawn to try the case of W. H. Francis vs. John Timmons, based on a claim for real estate commissions, but before the trial opened the parties settled out of court. Judge Graham excused the jury until Monday afternoon at two o'clock and left for Jefferson this afternoon. He will return to Janesville tomorrow morning.

Loop Condemnation.

Andrew Jensen of Edgerton, E. G. Plfield of Beloit, and Henry Tall of Janesville, the commissioners appointed by the court to determine what damages Lenz and his wife were entitled to in the "loop" district, are entitled to receive from the B. & J. Interurban Co. not in the circuit court chambers this afternoon and listened to evidence from a number of witnesses.

CERTIFICATE WILL BE ASKED FOR NEXT

Chicago-Wisconsin Interurban Road to Go Before the Railway Commission.

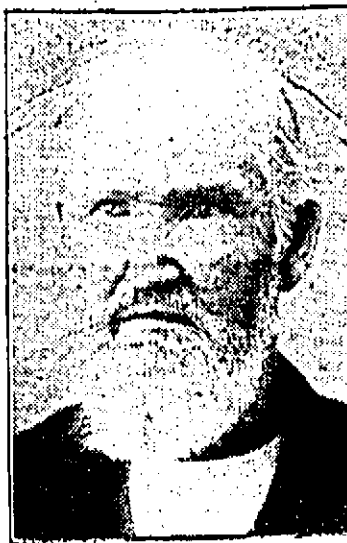

According to a statement of the treasurer of the Chicago-Wisconsin Railroad company, the company will make application in about thirty days to the state railroad commission for a certificate of convenience and necessity entitling the company to start work on the proposed line from Madison to Merrill. The application will be filed with the commission just as soon as the permanent survey line has been run from Madison to Portage.

The projected interurban is now practically a certainty, as eastern capital has been secured to finance the enterprise. The general manager of the road and a representative of the Western Indiana Construction company, which will build the Portage city line, have been in Portage today looking over the field to find out what tools and machinery will be needed. The rails already been ordered and are on the way to that city. Grading on the line between Madison and Portage will be started as soon as the ground is soft enough to work.

BANQUET ENJOYED BY THOSE PRESENT

Local Lodge of Moose Hosts at Most Enjoyable Affair Last Evening.

There was a flow of wit and music and a feast of good things at the first annual banquet of the Janesville Lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose held last evening at Assembly hall. Pastmaster decorated with red and gold, the colors of Moosehood, with the long tables, spread for five hundred, Knott and Hatch's orchestra hidden behind a lower of ferns on the raised platform and thirty-five members of the order, all in white, serving the feast, the affair was a most successful one. Following the repast George H. Williamson, toastmaster of the evening, introduced the post prandial program with a few neat remarks welcoming the guests and asked John L. Fisher, the Dictator of the Lodge, to talk on the principles of the order. Mr. Fisher made a most excellent impression on his hearers and after the applause had subsided the Knott and Hatch orchestra started the music for "Foolish Questions" which was sung by the choir to music by W. H. H. Macdonald, and other members of property in the "loop" district are entitled to receive from the B. & J. Interurban Co. not in the circuit court chambers this afternoon and listened to evidence from a number of witnesses.

MRS. JOHN HOPP.

MRS. JOHN HOPP, Webster Ave., Glendale, L. I., N. Y., writes:

"I have been suffering for the past ten years with many symptoms incident to my age, also catarrh and indigestion. I was weak and discouraged, had no ambition, could not sleep at night, and lost greatly in weight."

"I tried other remedies, but with no success, until I commenced to take Peruna. I now feel better in every respect. I can sleep well, and have gained in weight. I cannot praise Peruna highly enough for the good it has done me."

"If any women are suffering as I did, I would advise them to try Peruna and convince themselves. Peruna has done me good. I know by my experience that it is worth its weight in gold to any one who needs it."

"I also took Mannin, for constipation, in connection with Peruna, and I found it helped me where other laxatives failed."

Cigar Talk Number 1

You as a smoker know that the first thing to consider in a cigar is the quality of the cigar itself. We believe that we can give you as great a cigar value for your money as any dealer in the city. Why? Because we buy only those cigars which sell. We believe that the selling quality of a cigar is its FINAL test. All cigars are made for the smoker and for him only. If he buys them they ARE GOOD. If he does not, they are NOT GOOD. For neither you, nor any other man, is going to buy a cigar that does not please him.

Furthermore, we believe that there never was a cigar made nor never will be that can please every taste. That's why we aim to carry a complete line of the best sellers.

THE MOON BILL IS DEFENDED

TAFT REPLIES TO HIS CRITICS REGARDING INJUNCTION MEASURE.

HOLDS PROVISIONS ARE JUST

Makes Public Correspondence with Pennsylvania Congressman, Who Says Employees Are Making Campaign Based on Falsehood.

Washington, Mar. 9.—Actuated by criticism on the part of the American Association of Manufacturers directed against the anti-injunction bill now before congress, President Taft gave out a reply through a letter addressed to Congressman Moon, in charge of the bill.

Mr. Moon answers recent criticism leveled against the bill by the association and specifically charges that organization with having adopted an "unfair and pernicious method of manufacturing public sentiment."

Taft indorses Moon's Stand.

The president, addressing Mr. Moon, indorses his stand in denouncing the association propaganda and again urges the importance of the pending legislation, declaring that while the bill does not meet the views of the extremists on either side, it should be adopted as carrying out one of the platform pledges of the party.

President Hits Critics.
In his letter to Mr. Moon the president says:

"I have your letter of March 7 in respect to the provisions of the bill introduced by you, granting restraining orders and injunctions by the federal courts. I have already written you how important I regard this legislation and how necessary I think it is for congress to adopt it in carrying out the pledges of the Republican party, and this although the bill does not meet the views of the extremists on either side. It merely embodies what is the best practice pursued by chancellors of experience and actually adopted by the rules of some of the federal courts.

"I concur with you fully in your view of the injustice of the criticism in the statement to which you refer and to which you offer so full a reply. Sincerely yours,
"WILLIAM H. TAFT."

Falsehood Is Charged.
Referring in his letter to the president to a circular issued by the Association of Manufacturers under the caption, "A Critical Situation," Mr. Moon declared that the statements made therein and interpretation placed thereon are erroneous and misleading and intended to create an artificial public sentiment against the pending measure.

FAMOUS RUSSIAN TRIAL OPENS.
Secret Proceedings Against Breshkovskaya and Tschalkovsky Resumed.
St. Petersburg, Mar. 9.—Nicholas V. Tschalkovsky pleaded not guilty and Mme. Breshkovskaya responded: "I admit that I am a social-revolutionist" when their trials on charges of criminal activity in the revolutionary organization was begun. The public was not admitted to the courtroom.

The court adjourned its sitting with the testimony of the prosecution and defense entirely in. The prosecution's whole case rests on the statements of Patent, who added nothing to what he had already given in the indictment.

Both Tschalkovsky and Mme. Breshkovskaya flatly denied several points in the accusation on the ground that they were not in Russia at the times specified.

ROOSEVELT TO STUMP WEST.
Congressional Committee Wants Colonel in Insurgent States.

Washington, Mar. 9.—The Republican congressional campaign committee, it was reported here, has taken initial steps to enlist former President Theodore Roosevelt in the coming campaign upon his return to the United States from Africa. Officials of the committee, it is said, have been in correspondence with Mr. Roosevelt and has unfolded to him a plan which contemplates a spectacular speech-making tour of the west, particularly in states where the so-called insurgent movement is militant.

Naples, Mar. 9.—The director of the observatory on Mount Vesuvius issued a reassuring statement regarding the recent eruption of the volcano. ASQUITHS TO PART, IS TOPIC OF TALK

REPORTED BRITISH PRIME MINISTER AND WIFE SEEK DIVORCE.

PREMIER TO BE MADE PEER

Almost Certain Leader of Liberal Party Will Retire from Present Office—Is Advised by King to Take a Pledge.

London, Mar. 9.—The chief topic of conversation in London society is the report that Herbert Asquith, prime minister of England, and his beautiful wife, are to seek divorce.

While the news of an actual break came as a surprise to many, it has long been known that the Asquiths did not live happily together. Many thought that for reasons of policy they would stick it out.

Will Retire as Premier.

It is now almost certain that Asquith will resign the leadership of the Liberal party and retire as prime minister. He will be made a peer by King Edward, if the present program is carried out, and find a scope for his ability in other channels.

Within two weeks the premier greatly offended King Edward by appearing before him too soon after having lunched well, but not wisely. He came to ask a pledge from the king that he would sustain the government's hand in the matter of abolishing the veto in the house of lords.

"I will give you no pledge," said the king, fairly, "but I advise you, sir, to take one."

Separation May Be Delayed.

The very fact that Asquith is to be made a peer is likely to delay the legal steps toward a separation. Mrs. Asquith is entirely too ambitious to lose this opportunity of becoming a peeress. She is said to be all ready to leave for the continent to seek a judicial separation, but will probably wait for the title.

Many things contribute to the domestic unhappiness of the Asquiths. They have brought matters to such an acute stage that no sooner does the premier arrive at the official residence than the wife packs her trunks and leaves for the country.

LILLIS FACES A NEW DANGER.

Doctor Fears Blood Poisoning May Menace Banker's Life.

Kansas City, Mo., Mar. 9.—Fear that complications may develop in the injuries of Jere P. Lillis, president of the Western Exchange bank, whom John P. Cuddey, the packer, assaulted Sunday morning in the Cuddey home, caused physicians to abandon their announced plan to move him to his home. Lillis is at St. Mary's hospital and may be kept there several days.

The development that Dr. Samuel Ayres, who is attending the injured banker, most fears is blood poisoning. The knife which Cuddey used upon his victim is said to have been an old, rusty blade.

Lillis still is unable to talk, as his lips were badly battered. Nurses at the hospital say he had not spoken since his arrival there.

As the knife did not touch any vital part of Lillis' body, he probably will be able to be out in a few days if blood poisoning does not set in.

PAPA KNOX IS UNFORGIVING.

Secretary of State Refuses to Welcome Son and His Bride.

Washington, Mar. 9.—Philoander C. Knox, Jr., accompanied by his bride and the latter's mother, Mrs. Daniel Gary of Providence, R. I., left Washington for the latter city, after having failed to obtain the forgiveness of the Secretary of State and Mrs. Knox for their marriage last Sunday in Burlington, Vt.

Dr. French, principal of the Morris Heights school in Providence, where young Knox was a pupil up to the time of his marriage, came down on the train with Mr. and Mrs. Knox, but has disappeared.

Dr. French, young Mr. Knox said, had come down here to plead his cause with the secretary of state. Others declare he had a few things to explain to the secretary as to how, when and why the rules of the school permitted time for ardent courtships.

TWENTY ARE INJURED IN WRECK

Crash on Yazoo Road Caused by Flagman Being Called In.

Greenwood, Miss., Mar. 9.—Twenty people were injured in a collision at Phillips, 18 miles above here on the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley railroad, when a passenger train ran into a supply train. A flagman that had been sent back to flag the passenger train was called in, and the passenger train crashed into the supply train without warning.

The names of the injured could not be learned, as the railroad officials refused to give up the list. It was learned that two white men from Indianola were among the injured and 12 negroes.

A NEW SEWING MACHINE.

Invented by Wm. C. Free, of Chicago.

Special Demonstrator Will be Here Two Days.

Some people may be surprised that we use such strong language in endorsing this new and different machine, "THE FREE," and wonder why we give it such an enthusiastic endorsement.

Let us ask you in turn—would you rather that we remain quiet and allow you to continue working with a machine which is thirty years behind the times? Would you rather that we be modest and let you worry along with scores of sewing machine troubles which no man would tolerate in his machinery for five minutes? Would you rather that we say nothing and allow you, to miss the dozens of up-to-date labor-saving improvements on "THE FREE"?

If there is anyone who would rather get tired limbs running a machine without any ball bearings than to use the light running "FREE" with its 8 sets of ball bearings—

If there is any woman who would rather have a slow shuttle machine or a complicated rotary machine than to have "THE FREE" with its fast and simple "Roseella" movement—

If there is any woman who would rather poke out the shuttle of her machine with her finger-nail, the scissor or a screw driver than to use the clever little shell ejector of "THE FREE"—

If there is any woman who would rather have her thread break or spoil the stitch by falling off the spool than to use "THE FREE" with its Rotary Spool Pin—

If there is any woman who would rather have a machine which is the ugliest thing in the house, and the worst dust collector instead of "THE FREE" with its beautiful French leg design, and dustless Japanning—

In short, if there is any woman who does not care about the Automatic Locking Drawers, the Automatic Tension Release, the Automatic Thread Controller, the Improved Head Lath, etc., etc., which are on "THE FREE"—

WIRELESS CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

Stop taking drugs and try ELECTROPODES, the new electric treatment. The only means known to science by which actual nerve force is supplied to the human body.

We do not merely guarantee a cure, we do better than that. We have arranged with your druggist to sign a binding legal contract with you, agreeing to refund the money if they fail to cure rheumatism in any form, nervous headaches and other nervous ailments. They restore a good circulation of the blood and invariably make cold feet warm. They purify the entire system, removing all bad odors from the feet and hands.

You know your druggist, you know his name to a contract makes you safe, then why not try a pair of ELECTROPODES? $1.00 if they cure, and not one cent if they don't.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send direct to the ELECTROPODE COMPANY, room 16 Holland Block, Lima, Ohio, and try a pair. Contract signed and money positively refunded if they fail to cure. Mention if for a lady or gent.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

IF THERE is one brand of foolishness in a man that is more egregious than any other I think it is the foolishness of the man who doesn't tell the one girl that he loves her because he thinks she must know it by intuition.

There is no doubt but that women have a remarkable intuition, but when it's a question of marriage most women are building their plans for the future on some sounder foundation than intuition.

I have often heard it stated that when a man gets to the point of proposing the woman has long known that he intended to.

Perhaps she does know, but I fancy she also knows he is going to sometimes when he doesn't do it.

Maybe a woman does have an intuition as to a man's feeling for her, but I guess it's apt to be an intuition that shows up better in the recollection after he has told her those feelings than it does at any other time.

The joke mongers are always poking fun at the woman who says, "This is so sudden," but I fancy there are plenty of women who could say in all seriousness, "This is so sudden; I had a pretty good idea you felt that way, but I had about given up expecting you'd say so."

And, furthermore, I have no sort of use for the man who absorbs a large part of a woman's time, pays her continual attention, gives her every chance and reason to fall in love with him, but doesn't speak because he isn't in a position to marry her yet.

That's all very well. He needn't marry her yet. If she cares for him and is any sort of a woman she will be willing to wait. But surely it will do no harm to anyone for her to know while she is waiting that he cares for her.

There was a girl in our town who grew thin and wan and actually aged just twice as fast as she naturally would have, wondering and questioning herself and having an intuition that he did and then feeling sure he didn't, while the man she loved was serving up one of those silent courtships.

Of course he must have suffered some doubt too, but he always knew that if his doubts became unendurable, or if a rival appeared he could speak while she had no such consolation.

And, any way, I don't believe men have the doubts women do. To the average man it appears quite probable and natural that the right girl should fall in love with him. To the average woman that the right man should love her appears more in the light of a possibility.

As Ethelwyn says, "It does not matter what the size of a man is, his vanity is just the same. A shrug of five feet is unable to understand why a lovely goddess does not drop like a ripe peach into his mouth."

But to return to the girl who grew thin. One day after the courtship had ended in the proper way to everybody's relief she was telling me about it. "Jim wouldn't say a word about caring for me until he could give me the right kind of a home," she said. "Wasn't he splendid?"

Of course I said he was, but I didn't think so. At least not in that matter. Nor any of his ilk that expect women to know by intuition when they are loved.

Quite the contrary.

MRS. CHAS. FERGUSON.

St. Louis, Mo.—Mrs. Charles Ferguson, president of the Brotherhood Welfare association, has taken up the campaign in Missouri promulgating the doctrine "right of man to work."

Her addresses are in opposition to the scheme of Immigrant Commission or Powderly to use Missouri state lands for the "colonization of immigrants."

There are too many men needing work in Missouri to warrant bringing immigrant hordes, in the opinion of Mrs. Ferguson, whose home formerly was in this state. She is opposed to Governor Hadley's seeming approval of the Powderly plan.

"This type of immigrant will not remain on the farms in the colonies. The majority of them know nothing of country life. They have worked in the factories and mines of the big European cities and will seek their element when they arrive here. This influx will cause a decrease in work and a decrease in salary. There is already a serious employment problem here without adding to it."

Mrs. Ferguson in her capacity of national president of the Welfare association attended the labor conference called by Secretary Strauss during the last administration, when Commission or Powderly was present and made announcement of his plan to use western lands to get the immigrants out of the big cities. This conference was the first official recognition of the organization of which Mrs. Ferguson is president.

Mrs. Ferguson is a member of the American Suffragist society and her interests are very pronounced in legislative affairs. She is the wife of Charles Ferguson, one of the chief editorial writers of the New York American. She is visiting large cities, delivering lectures to women and girls, unions and to welfare associations, and studying the employment question.

She was a foremost actor in the great strike drama of the shirtwaist workers in the east recently and frequently was their spokesman in strenuous mandamus interviews with the employers.

A BLOODLESS REVOLUTION

By MARY RUSSELL.

The women who refuse to pay taxes unless they are allowed to vote are right. We proved that in 75. The question is, will this bloodless revolution win?

If men are made to think by the striking home of the fundamental truths and principles for which our country stands then much will be gained. The campaign for suffrage has ever been an educational campaign. The women who do not want to vote still hamper the ones who do. No one will drag these women to the polls, and more than the men who think they are not needed in the politics of the country are made to take the part which is assigned them.

The attitude of the average man towards women is one to make a thinking woman smile. He either treats her with a superior air and does not on a mental par that is warranted to agree with the most inflexible digestion, or he puts her on a plane with the unimpaired or mentally unbalanced. With the masculine mind he attributes to her the masculine morals—or lack thereof! As Ellis says, he thinks she is a "cross between an angel and an idiot," or she is masculine and mad, or virile and virileless.

The modern woman is none of these things. She is a sane, thinking entity who has lost none of her morals but gained a wider viewpoint. She sees that what is wrong is wrong—neither wrong for woman and good for man, nor good for woman and wrong for man.

There is only one man to define right! Webster gives 15 definitions, and after all there is but one absolute test of what is right. Define it as you will, and all definitions come around to the same meaning. It is not a word which is initiated as applied to man or woman.

I am not one of those who think the political situation will be greatly changed at once if women are granted suffrage. Human nature is the same in men and women alike.

"There will always be two sides to questions because of the difference in the brains of human beings, but as women of the world over have a higher standard than men—that is, taking both sexes in the aggregate—then in time right thinking will prevail and there will be a marked advance."

The reproach is thrown at the states that have granted suffrage that no great things have been accomplished, that evil is still to be found in those states and many good women profess disgust with the whole matter of women's rights because of this. They do not stop to think how the women are hampered by just such weak states. They do not understand the desperate fight that has gone on with the machine of political power.

No great reform has ever been made in a day. Years are required to make an impression on such a litigation as ours. Give the women time and then judge!

HARTJE FACT IS MADE PUBLIC. Wife Will Receive Interest on $150,000 For Life.

Pittsburg, Pa., Mar. 9.—Details of the settlement of the Hartje family troubles made public here caused as much surprise as anything since the case was up for trial some years ago.

The following agreement has been made between the paper manufacturer and his wife, Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje. Hartje will pay the wife $25,000 in cash and will set aside for her $150,000 from which she will derive the income for life. Hartje in return is to receive his 16-year-old son, Scott Hartje, while the daughter, Mary Louisa, is to choose between her father and mother.

Mr. Hartje has also agreed to make no defense when his wife enters suit against him for absolute divorce, which will be soon, and on the grounds of desertion.

Farmers should eat more oatmeal.

Although the farmer of today is able to buy almost anything he wants to wear or to eat he isn't paying enough attention to food values when it comes to his own table.

If he has been watching the extensive researches and experiments on the question of the best human food for muscle and brain he will heed the advice from all sides to "eat more Quaker Oats."

Quaker Oats is mentioned because it is recognized in this country and Europe as the best of all oatmeals. Feeding farm hands on Quaker Oats means getting more work out of them than if you feed them on anything else.

For home use it is packed in regular packages, and in large size family packages at 25c.

40 Years' Satisfaction For Bradley Shoe Wearers

Why should you bother to experiment with other shoes when you know the Bradley Shoe is sure to give perfect satisfaction?

If it didn't, men wouldn't wear the Bradley Shoe, (and no other) year after year, for 40 years, as we know plenty who do. And it is neither prejudice nor imagination—nor because they are cheap shoes.

But rather because Bradley Shoes are not cheap. We have taken pains to find out just how the Bradley Shoe is made—and just how other shoes are made.

So we can tell you exactly why people continue to wear the Bradley Shoe—once having tried it—instead of any other.

The Bradley Shoe is the honest shoe—the satisfactory shoe. Even an expert shoe man could find no slightest flaw in the Bradley shoe from sole to lining.

For Style—Comfort—Wear—The Bradley Shoe Will Suit You

It will stand the closest inspection and the severest kind of a test.

That is why—even at less profit to us—we prefer to sell you the Bradley Shoe.

But the best recommendation of the Bradley Shoe is the Bradley Shoe itself. Come in and try a pair on—and you'll know more about real true shoe satisfaction than we could ever tell you in print.

You'll find every good style in our Bradley Shoe stock—and more actual worth and down-right economy than in any other shoe stock in town.

The Pancake Bell.
One of the ancient English customs was to ring a great bell on the day preceding Ash Wednesday, known as Shrove Tuesday, to call the people to gether to confess their sins. As it has also been customary, from time immemorial, to eat pancakes on this day, this custom came to be known as the "pancake bell," a name which it still bears in those places where the custom is now maintained.

Miju Religion.

Though living on the borders of Tibet, no trace of Buddhism is found among the Mijus, an Asiatic race. Their religion is animistic and consists in the propitiation of the various spirits to whom sickness, failure of crops and such like calamities are attributed. The propitiation takes the form usually of the sacrifice of a fowl or a pig, a small portion being set aside for the spirit, the rest going down the throats of the offerer and his family.

Do You Know?

Do you know all the sources of loss in your store—all the possible leaks? Do you guess about them or do you know?

Do you know just how much money ought to be in your cash drawer, right now?

Do you know, now, how much money is owing you on account?

Do you know just how much your cash and credit sales to date, for this year, amount to?

Do you know how much business each clerk has done?

You may say, "Well, I could find out after figuring it all up." But that isn't the question, Mr. Merchant, you should know all these things every day. You should know that the information you get is absolutely correct.

When you discover a mistake, can you tell who made it? Will guessing about this promote good feeling among your clerks?

If you don't know all these things absolutely, you are trusting to luck instead of knowing for yourself.

A National Cash Register will enable you to know about all these things.

Over 800,000 merchants already know all these vital things about their businesses, because they are using National Cash Registers.

Nearly 10,000 merchants are joining the vast army of National Cash Register users every month, because it pays.

The Milk-Producing Cow

In a discussion of "The Milk-Producing Cow," Malcolm C. Mount stated that all dairy herds were good and that the choice was largely a matter of individual preference. The Holstein, with a lineage dating back to a time before the Christian era and mentioned favorably in the commentaries of Julius Caesar and Tacitus, was an established type of great nobility and from many other breeds, such as the Shorthorn, had been derived. The first importations to the country took place in 1795 and in a small way the breeding here had continued ever since. Within the past few years the numbers had largely increased and there were perhaps 100,000 in the country at the present time. The records of the past few years had demonstrated that there was no greater milk and butter producer. If the milk was not as rich in butter fat as that of the Jersey and Guernsey, the greater yield more than made up this deficiency. The speaker alluded to one of the star performers who yielded her own weight in milk every 12 days and the government test of 52 cows where the Holstein yielded 1.67 pounds of butter fat on the average to the Jersey's 1.26. The important thing was to get some one type of high-bred stock established in stock county and make it the headquarters for that breed. It was right to raise a little tobacco and some sugar beets but the main proposition was to grow corn and cattle on a much larger scale. The Holstein cow yielding 3,000 pounds of butter fat a year ($315 with butter at 25 cents) was worthy of careful consideration.

"Old Farmer's View" knew that August Friedrich Wilhelm Schwarzenegger's humorous and delightful review of the dairy situation, published in Horner's Dairyman and read with remarkable expression and feeling by Circuit Judge George Grimm, was the speaker's own inspiration. The Pumpkin Hollow philosopher expressed himself as prejudiced against the Holstein on general principles because THEY BREAK THE LAW by giving milk that is not up to test; though he admitted that if one was prejudiced in favor of the Jersey, the milk of the Jersey was not up to test.

the skin-milk yield was entitled to consideration.

George G. Sutherland put in a word in favor of the Shorthorn—a type bred to high efficiency by the Pennsylvania Dutch and first prize-winners at the St. Louis exposition—and urged the necessity of establishing some good cattle stock in this county. It would be harder to get the farmers to agree on one breed than to enlist the business men of Janesville in a movement for a new factory—and everybody knew how hard that was. He alluded to Mr. Legler's fine herd of 200 head at Judge Legler's farm and said that Mr. Legler had probably the third best in the United States and said that Mr. Legler had on his farm near De Wolf as fine brown Sykes as were to be found in the country. The speaker was quite an enthusiastic as Mr. Legler was over sugar beets, but he found it more profitable to use them in fattening hogs than to take them to the factory. He thought an effort to form an association to breed one type of cattle would be eminently worth while. It would be feasible to cross the Holstein with the Shorthorn and get some richness into the milk. In conclusion Mr. Sutherland made to get the efforts that had been made to get a Holstein's condensed milk factory here, efforts which had failed because the management claimed that competition would be too keen in a city of this size.

C. J. Keeling Fruit Raising. C. J. Keeling of Lake Mills gave a very interesting talk on "Fruit-Raising in Wisconsin." Experimentation with apples, he said, had been in progress within the borders of this state since 1837 when he planted his first apple tree, a Rhode Island Greening, near the lake north of Koshong, then Pike river. He had grafted seedlings in 1845 which were bearing today. Upon his return from a long journey to California in the early days, he brought 10 acres of land south of Janesville and experimented with 35 varieties. Only four succeeded—the Tetelak, Claymore, Duchess, and Tullman Sweet. While nearly every one may raise enough apples for family use, for commercial purposes but a few varieties will succeed on the low black soils of the prairie. The high timbered ridges with clay soil are the only ones promising success and the north slope is best because the trees do not start so early in the spring.

There are now successful orchards in many parts of the state—at Burlington, Waupun, Kaukauna, West Salem, Sturgeon Bay, Menasha, and other points where apples are being grown and shipped in carload lots. And at Sturgeon Bay D. E. Bingham has 20 acres of cherries planted and those in bearing now net him from $200 to $500 per acre. W. H. Marsh harvested from the state trial orchard at Waupun last fall 2,000 bushels of choice apples and sold them at higher prices than those obtained by many of the orchardists in the Pacific states. Wisconsin fruit can successfully compete with the western product because it is of better quality.

The state last year produced 250,000 barrels which brought prices ranging from $2.75 to $4.00. The speaker alluded to one instance where 1,000 barrels were taken from 400 trees. There are no less than 20 successful Wisconsin orchards which are bearing grown extensively in neighboring states. Minnesota has made the Wealthy the most perfect apple grown in the Northwest.

The speaker said that Wisconsin was just on the eve of its development as one of the greatest fruit-growing states in the union.

Roller and Zbyzsko Matched. Kansas City, Mo., Mar. 9.—Final articles were signed here for a football wrestling match between Dr. B. F. Roller, the Seattle physician, and Stanislaus Cyganowich (Zbyzsko), the big Pole, before the Missouri Athletic club March 23. A purse of $7,000 was hung up for the bout.

Agricultural Bill is Passed. Washington, Mar. 8.—The senate passed the agricultural appropriation bill, carrying $13,500,000. The post office bill, carrying appropriations aggregating $211,000,000, or about $6,300,000 more than the appropriations for the current year, was passed by the house.

FROM NAVY SERVICE TO PRIVATE LIFE.
Rear Admiral Uriel Sebree Leaving the California—Picture Taken Exclusively for This Paper.

San Francisco, Cal.—The Pacific fleet gave Rear Admiral Uriel Sebree the best and most picturesque send-off that the navy regulations will permit when he bade goodbye February 19 to his command and to the service of which he has been an active part since 1867.

The captain of the six armored cruisers acted as aide-de-camp for the retiring commander-in-chief when he left the flagship, and the pulling barge in which he was rowed ashore was manned by officers of the California.

New Metal Lighter Than Aluminum. A great chemical factory at Hoechst on the Main, Germany, exhibited a new metal at the Frankfurt aeronautic exposition that is said to be as strong as the best aluminum alloys and but half as heavy. It is called "aletron" and has a specific weight of 1.8 as compared to 2.5 of the best aluminum. Bolts and bars that would ordinarily be thought of as heavy were placed on exhibition, and when handled seemed as light as paper mache.

THEATRE

"The Man of the Hour." Win. A. Brady and Jos. R. Grismer, who bring George Broadhurst's immense success, "The Man of the Hour," to the Myers Theater, Friday, March 11, to the many of the few producing managers who do not employ a professional play reader. Both have been actors. Each is a skilful stage manager; every production they make bears the stamp of their individuality. Perhaps this independence of judgment has much to do with their picking so many winners—plays that attract and endure. In fact they have never had a failure. Man of the Hour and Grismer's special cast which will be seen here includes Arthur, Matt, Byron, T. H. Grier, M. J. MacQuarrie, William Lloyd, William Callington, P. E. Warner, George A. Cameron, H. J. Hewitt, Edward Dowdy, Madeline Windrop, Anna Reader and Florence Muck.

FOR YOUR HEALTH'S SAKE

NOISE AND NERVOUSNESS. In any large city there is necessarily much noise. There are, too, many kinds of noises. Some of them might be avoided, many of them cannot be. Many people are greatly disturbed and affected by noise. Especially do they become nervous and irritated if the noise is one out of the ordinary kinds of noises to which they have always been accustomed. The mental attitude has everything to do with the degree to which one permits himself to be disturbed by noise. Allowing the mind to dwell on it, to concentrate thought on a matter of this kind, tends to greatly intensify one's discomfort. In fact, if continued, will make life itself unbearable. The better thing to do, in fact, the right thing to do, is to forget it. Try this suggestion and see how well it will work.

Of all sad words of tongue or pen—The saddest are these: "It might have been."

The Baseball Season By WALT MASON

Well may the festive poet sing, and punch his trusty lyre, for signs and harbingers of spring come like a house afire; the birds are warbling lays of love, the agents' faces beam; and I would like some tidings of Joe Cannon's baseball team. St. Louis sends out lots of dope, Chicago's on the map, the Boston boys express the hope they'll win this season's scrap; but Danville's lying mighty low; she hasn't made a scream; and lots of sports would like to know about Joe Cannon's team. Oh, Cleveland's cutting lots of ice, and Buffalo's on deck; and even Washington looks nice, that erstwhile was a wreck; but Danville seems to coddle down, beneath the sheets, and dream; there's nothing doing, in the town of Cannon's baseball team. Wake up, O Danville, from your trance! Shake off all doubt and fear! Let not your name be written Pance, when scores are made this year! The team that bears Joe Cannon's name should work as though by steam, should dominate the blooming game! Wake up, O Danville team!

HENRIETTA WELLS.

FIRST OF FAIR SEX TO SIT ON UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT BENCH.

Washington, D. C.—The fight for woman's rights is surely bearing fruit. A few women have been honored by being elected to the state legislatures where equal suffrage prevails and it is even proposed to send one to the United States senate.

The colleges and universities are turning out women, proficient in law, who are taking their places in all forms of legal practice, but it is left for a three-year-old lady to have the honor of being the first to sit on the United States supreme court bench.

Little Miss Wells of Boston, granddaughter of Justice Brewer, is the one who was thus honored. It occurred a few days ago when she and her mother were visiting the supreme court. As soon as Justice Brewer saw them, he left his place on the bench for the seats reserved for the families of members. When he started to return to the bench the child innocently followed him and when the associate justice saw her, he took her on his knee and for the first time in the 120 years history of the court a girl sat on the United States supreme court among the dignified justices.

Henrietta is a bright, friendly little creature, with a smile for everyone who comes her way. Despite her tender years she has quite an extensive vocabulary, as befits a young miss of Boston. She is very pretty, with large blue eyes and fair hair.

The sum of $1,800 has been agreed upon as a basis of settlement for about 100 other cases. The rate of settlement was fixed at a meeting between attorneys representing the claimants and counsel for the mine owners.

Beautiful New White Spring Goods
There Is Nothing Like Comparisons

Several of our salespeople have been in the city and have noted quite carefully the different stocks, particularly the white goods and upon their return in most glowing terms of the size of our stock and the rare values, and this, coupled with what many well posted women have told us, who are familiar with Chicago stocks, gives us very good reasons to grow enthusiastic over our unusually large and complete stock.

Facts For Sick Women

We know of no other medicine which has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women, or secured so many genuine testimonials, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every woman you meet has either been benefited by it, or knows some one who has.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, in which many openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made exclusively from roots and herbs, and is perfectly harmless.

The reason why it is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the female organism, restoring it to healthy and normal activity.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials such as the following prove the efficiency of this simple remedy.

Minneapolis, Minn.: "I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women, I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. Within three months I was a perfectly well woman."

"I want this letter made public to show the benefits to be derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. John G. Moldan, 2115 Second St., North Minneapolis, Minn.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

The LITTLE BROWN JUG at KILDARE

"I haven't decided yet just what to do with him, but the scoundrel undoubtedly belongs in South Carolina, and I have every intention of making his own state punish him."

The prisoner leaned heavily against his prison door and glared out upon his jailer with a new, fierce interest.

"I tell you I've nothing to do with the Applewhite! I don't want to reveal my identity to you, you young beggar; but I demand my legal rights."

"My dear sir," retorted Ardmore, "you have no legal rights, for the writ of habeas corpus doesn't go here. You seem rather intelligent for a barn burner and timber thief. Come now, what is your name?"

The prisoner gazed down upon the imperturbable figure of his captor through the slats of the corner, and Ardmore returned his gaze with his most bland and childlike air.

Many people had been driven to the point of madness by Ardmore's apparent dullness. The prisoner realized that he must launch a thunderbolt if he would disturb a self-possession so complete—travelling as sweet as the fading afternoon.

"Mr. Ardmore, I dislike to do it, but your amazing conduct makes it necessary for me to disclose my identity," and the man's manner showed real embarrassment.

"I know it! I know it!" nodded Ardmore, folding his arms across his chest.

While Mr. Ardmore was lecturing his prisoner in the corner, it may be interesting to return for a moment to the haunted log cabin on Haccoon creek, the interior of which was roughly but comfortably furnished.

Above were two small sleeping-rooms, and beside the bed in each stood a suit-case and a hand-entel. In each room hung, on convenient hooks, a long, black frock-coat, a pair of trousers of light cloth, and a broad-brim black felt hat. Coat, trousers and hat were exactly alike.

In the room below sat a man in his shirt-sleeves, his feet on a cheap deal table, blowing rings from a cigar. He presented a picture of the greatest ease and contentment, as he occasionally stroked his short brown beard, or threw up his arms and clasped his hands about his head or caught lazily at the smoke rings.

On the table lay an array of playing cards and poker chips.

"It's too good to last forever," the lone occupant reflected aloud, stifling a yawn, and he reached out, with careless indifference, toward a bundle of newspapers tied together with a piece of twine and drew one out and spread it across his knees.

He yawned again as though the thought of a world whose affairs were stamped in printer's ink bored him immensely; and then the bold headlines that shouted at him across half a quarter of the sheet caused him to gasp, and his feet struck the bare floor of the cabin resoundingly.

He now bent over the paper with the greatest eagerness, muttering as he read, and some of his mutterings were, it must be confessed, not without profane embellishment.

TWO COWARDLY GOVERNORS MISSING.

Scandal Affecting Two State Executives—In the Applewhite Case Responsible?—Runners of Fatal Duel on State Line.

He read breathlessly the startling story that followed the headlines, then rose and glanced anxiously at his watch.

"Am I drunk or mad? I must find Osborne and get out of this."

He leaped to the open door, and gazed into the forest from a little platform that commanded all sides of the cabin. And there, to his utter amazement, he saw men in khaki emerging cautiously from the woods.

They were unmistakably soldiers of some sort, for an officer was giving sharp commands, and the line opened out like a fan along the creek. The observer of this maneuver mopped his head with his handkerchief as he watched the alert movements of the figures in khaki.

He was so absorbed that he failed to hear stealthy steps at the rear of the platform, but he was now rudely aroused by two uniformed youngsters with S. C. N. G. on their caps, who sprang upon him and bore him with a crash to the puncher floor.

"You're our prisoner!" shouted one of them, rising when he found that the prisoner yielded without resistance.

"What for?" blurted the captive, sitting up and rubbing his elbow.

"For being Bill Applewhite, alias Potest. Get up, now, and come with us to headquarters, or my instructions are to break your head."

"Who in the devil are you?" panted the prisoner.

"Well, it's anything to you, we're the South Carolina militia, so you'd better get up and climb."

CHAPTER XVI.

The Flight of Gillingwater.

"It will be better for me to break the news to Col. Gillingwater," said Jerry, "and you must go and meet the troops yourself, with Mr. Cooke and that amusing Mr. Collins. There is no telling what effect my tidings will have on Rutherford, or what he will decide to do. He has never before been so near trouble as he is now, and I may have to give him his first aid to the injured when he finds out that the South Carolina troops are on Haccoon creek, all ready to march upon our sacred soil."

"But suppose your adjutant general shouldn't go back to his troops after he sees you, then what am I to do?"

"If you don't see him by ten o'clock you will take personal command and exercise all the discretion as to the best method of finding Applewhite in a South Carolina jail. After that we must find papa, and it will be up to him to satisfy the newspapers and his constituents with some excuse for his strange disappearance."

Collins had come from Raleigh on the evening train, and he had solemnly assured Ardmore that the present state of affairs could not be maintained another 24 hours. He had exhausted all his professional resources, and the North Carolina newspapers of all shades of opinion were clamoring for the truth, and were insisting that Gov. Dargatzis should show himself in Raleigh.

"We've got to find Dargatzis or bust. Now, where is that eminent statesman, Ardmore? You can't tell me you don't know; but if you don't, Miss Dargatzis does, and she's got to tell."

"She hasn't the slightest idea, but if the newspapers find out that he's really and truly missing, he will have

NATION-WIDE ATTACK ON CORPORATION TAX

Many Briefs Are Filed in U. S. Supreme Court Against Tariff Bill Provision.

Washington, Mar. 8.—Brief after brief was filed in the United States supreme court making a nation-wide attack on the constitutionality of the corporation tax provision of the tariff law.

Final argument of the cases involving the question is set for next week. Prominent among these was the brief of former Senator Joseph B. Foraker of Ohio, solicitor for Louis W. Jurek, a stockholder in the American Malt-grain Company of Cleveland, O., who seeks to have the tax on the ground that it is unconstitutional.

Senator Foraker says the "indefiniteness of the language employed" in the corporation tax provision of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law makes it difficult to ascertain just what the tax is.

The debate in the senate over the provisions, he suggests, warrants the claim that the "ambiguous character of the provision" is due to an effort to bring it within the court's jurisdiction.

He claims a studied attempt was made to avoid using language that would indicate that it is the business, as such, that is taxed.

He says it is equally clear that the framers intended to provide a corporation income tax without laying it on the income, "and," he added, "equally clear that they did not succeed."

"The thing without which no tax is imposed," says Senator Foraker, "and which, when it is had or possessed, determines the amount of the tax, is so palpably the thing taxed that it does violence to common sense to claim the contrary."

cheat, "You're either the King of Slam or the prince of Potest. As either, I salute you!"

"No!" roared the captive, beating impotently against the door of the cage with his hands. "No! I'm the governor of South Carolina!"

This statement failed, however, to produce the slightest effect on Mr. Ardmore, who only smiled slightly, a smile less incredulous than disdainful.

"Oh, please; that's nothing," he replied. "I'm the governor of North Carolina!" and mounting his horse he gravely lifted his hat to the prisoner and galloped away.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, March 9, 1870.—Jottings.—The foundation of the court, and the people did not know on Saturday last under the pressure of the throng in attendance upon the Duval trial. Not knowing what sort of results might have followed had for the fact that the judge, with commendable presence of mind adjourned the court, and the people did not know of the accident until they were fairly well out of the building. The lecture of Rev. Mr. Allison, on "Gottschalk," at Lippitt's Hall, last evening, was well attended by an interested audience. The Duval case has gone to the jury. The town is full of tennis today and farmers are looking over farming implements as if they meant business.

News From the Suburbs

FULTON.
Fulton, March 8.—Master Kenneth Mayo entertained on his seventh birthday which occurred last Friday, the following little boys at a three course supper: Baxter and Kitchell Mayo, Herbert and Chester Menden, Harold Elison and Kenneth Peterson. All report a very fine time.

Mayo was home from Lodi the past week. There were no church services here last Sunday on account of bad roads. Mrs. D. Blanchard and daughter Janette and son Frank, left for their home in Montford after spending some time with relatives here. Albert and Fred Elison leave next week for Grinnell, Iowa. Their brother John left for there last week Friday.

Owen Elison was home from Chicago over Sunday.

Miss J. E. Warner is at her home here for a few days.

CENTER.
Center, March 8.—Owing to the condition of the road on Coon Island patrons of Route 17 had no mail Saturday or Sunday.

The question of a Farmer's Cooperative creamery is being quite enthusiastically agitated by some of the local farmers. Dr. Louisa of Janesville was out to see Mrs. Fuller one day last week. On last Thursday evening about forty neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Silvert, family gathered at their home unexpectedly to pay them a farewell visit, before leaving for their new home in Janesville. The evening was devoted to playing cards and music, after which refreshments were served, and in behalf of the friends assembled they were presented with a fine rug to take with them to their new home as a reminder of the occasion.

AWAY GOES DYSPEPSIA, HEARTBURN, STOMACH GAS AND OTHER MISERY

Take a little Diapiesin now and your stomach will feel fine five minutes later. As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of indigestion or some form of stomach trouble, why don't you keep some Diapiesin in the house handy? This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and overcome a sour, gassy stomach five minutes after. Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula plainly printed on these 50-cent boxes of Pope's Diapiesin, then you will readily see why it makes indigestion, Sour Stomach, Heartburn and other distresses go in five minutes and relieves at once such miseries as Belching of Gas, Eructations of sour undigested food, Nausea, Headaches, Dizziness, Constipation and other stomach disorders. Some folks have tried so long to find relief from indigestion and Dyspepsia or an out-of-order stomach with the common every-day cures advertised that they have almost made up their minds that they have something else wrong, or believe there is a case of Nervousness, Gastritis, Catarrh of the Stomach or Cancer. This, no doubt, is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid, Gas and Stomach poison, which putrefies in the digestive tract and intestines, and, besides, pollutes the breath with nauseous odors. A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the Stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Pope's Diapiesin.

County Superintendent Antulid is spending today in the Evansville schools.

The Woman's Literary club met last evening at the home of Mrs. Lyman Johnson. The meeting was very interesting, for in place of continuing the study of King Henry IV. in the usual manner, parts of the second act were assigned the members and they appeared in costume and acted the different characters.

Harvey Starkweather of Brooklyn was a visitor in Evansville today.

Mrs. Arthur Gillespie has been very ill for several days.

Henry Austin is spending the week in Janesville.

Clark A. Covert has bought of William Rabb a house and lot on Franklin street.

H. B. Griffith has bought Christian Hanson's property and Mr. Hanson has rented the Meekins house on Church street.

EAST CENTER.
East Center, March 7.—The roads are in the worst condition of the season. Our mail carrier, Mr. Hunsford, was unable to make his trip either Saturday or Monday.

Mr. Hunsford has taken possession of the Chas. Willeke farm, while Mr. Willeke and Otto Triple have moved east of Janesville.

On Friday evening about forty-five friends and relatives gave Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Crall a surprise to remind them that it was their tenth wedding anniversary. The evening was most pleasantly spent in games and music and at twelve o'clock a bounteous supper was served. J. H. Fisher, in behalf of those present, presented the host and hostess with a set of silver knives and forks.

Mrs. Walter Little, who has been suffering with rheumatism, is some better at present writing.

Mrs. George Brown is improving slowly.

On Saturday the family of J. H. Fisher had a delightful surprise planned for Mr. Fisher in honor of his fifteenth birthday. About fifty relatives and friends responded to invitations and enjoyed the day thoroughly. Rev. Bullock, in behalf of those present, in a few well chosen words presented Mr. Fisher with a fine chain. An elegant three-course dinner was served at noon and the afternoon was pleasantly spent with games and music and social conversation. The guests departed wishing Mr. Fisher many more happy birthdays.

Laban Fisher and Mrs. Lucy Sadler and son of Janesville were over-Sunday visitors at Wm. Dixon's.

El Crall was called to Evansville Saturday by the serious illness of his brother, John Crall, who is no better at present.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. S. Roberts spent Sunday at Edgerton.

The farmers' creamery at Center is now an assured fact and the projectors hope to have all in running order by the first of April. Stock in the creamery was freely subscribed for and all are hoping for a successful outcome.

HOAG'S CORNERS.
Hoag's Corners, March 7.—Miss Minnie Stricker is at home for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Brown and family spent Sunday with Mr. Hoag's. With Grace of Delavan spent Thursday night with Mr. Hoag. Miss Emma Lipke is working in Janesville.

Hugo, Harvey and Miss Adela Hotcher were callers at Mr. Hoag's Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Gus Wilcox, who has been sick, is a little better.

CANCER.

Cancer, rather than consumption, is the great plague, for we now know well how to control consumption. The cure of consumption is simple; easily applied in the initial stage at least. The cause of cancer is still unrecognized, its cure, accordingly, uncertain, although, if it can be absolutely eradicated by the knife, early, it may not return. Cases have been recorded in which it has even disappeared spontaneously, like consumption, by the natural healing forces resident in the body—which forces, suggestion, including "divine healing," may arouse to wonderful activity. The writer believes cancer to be the antithesis, the opposite, of consumption, attacking chiefly the rich, the over-fed, as consumption attacks chiefly the poor. Much careful study based on experiments and the available statistics, with the data secured by the institutions endowed for investigation into the cause of cancer, indicate that as consumption is hypnutrition of albumen, incited often by dust in the lungs and facilitated by lack of fresh air and exercise, and accompanied, of course, by the germ, the natural scavenger, so cancer is hypernutrition of albumen, resulting in the growth of renegade cell colonies, disorganizing nutrition. This theory tallies with all the facts, including failure to find a cancer germ, and indicating the specific cure as simple as the consumption cure, already outlined briefly.

"I want you to prepare for me a formula for making the best pumpkin pie that can be made," said the pie manufacturer to the chemist. "I've used turnips and other and potato flour and all the things my rivals use, and have beaten them a little bit at their own game, but now I want to put out a pumpkin pie that will simply outclass all other brands. I will pay you whatever fee is right for the work."—Life.
